House's Creek Township .- The candidates spoke at King's Store yes- quence, will infuse new spirit into terday, and we are pleased to learn that our prospects in that locality are of the most flattering character .-Whatever of apathy may have existed has been overcome, and the good people of that Township will do their full duty on the 5th of August.

WHICH IS WHICH .- Tim Lee, the independent Radical candidate for tions by the late Radical County Convention was a "put up" job, says says, Luke Davis is the Ex-Sheriff's that old Hodge was a republican .-How's how, and who's what?

A SPLENDID PIECE OF WORKMAN-SHIP .- Major Cameron, of the N. C. State Life Insurance Company, has in his office decidedly the best piece of workmanship in its line we have ever seen, being a handsome picture of Beast Butler set in procelain, which was sent the Major by a friend in New Orleans, the place above all others where the Beast is admired. The friends of Butler, or those desirous of seeing it simply as a piece of ance office, where Major Cameron will take pleasure in exhibiting this animal "in frame."

A CASE OF SUNSTROKE .- Yesterday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock a young son of Mr. Barnes Whitaker, of this county, while standing by a load of wood which he had brought to town, fell in front of Pepper's Saloon, Wilmington of Massachusetts militia. In street, from the effects of the heat of the sun. He was removed to Mr. Pepper's eating saloon and I is head bathed in ice-water and a small quantity of water and whiskey administered to him, which served to resusc :tate him. Dr. Little was called in, and in the course of a couple of hours the young man was sufficiently recovered to be carried home.

Somebody in St. Louis bas come across a letter written nearly eighty years ago, and sent with a wedding gift of a handkerchief to a young lady on the eve of her marriage. The let-ter says: "I send you, dear girl, an enchanted handkerchief. If you hold it tight to your mouth when you feel, some hundred years hence. (after the honeymoon) like finding fault with your husband, it will have a very good effect, I have used one for twenty years, and found it always effectual." — Exchange.

The old lady might as well have saved her handkerchief and her good advice also, but verily, verily the latter will not be followed. If young women were deprived of the privilege and relief of finding fault with their husbands, the world would be draped in funeral colors for them. and life itself would be but a shadowy QUESTION SETTLED .- The following correspondence in the N. Y. Journal of Commerce settles a question that seems to have existed in the workmanship, will call at the Insur- minds of some regarding the Boston Centennial: RALEIGH, N. C., July 14, 1875.

Editors of the Journal of Commerce: The writer, a Confederate soldier, during his trip to Boston, was, and is now, under the impression that General Francis A. Osborn was not only chief marshal, but commander-it cheif: my friend says nay, General Butler was commander-in-chief, and claimed the right (State rights) by virtue of his being the ranking officer wards was Generals Osborn or Butler commanding officer? If so, it was a igh compliment to the latter, being the first time he ever commanded Confederates with muskets in their

GREASY SAM AND MR. WADDELL IN THE WEST .- The Charlotte Observer thus relates the story of Mr. M. Q. Waddell, of Chatham, meeting Judge Samivel Watts at Marion a few days since, a brief account of which we had Saturday morning: "Mr Waddell and Gen Leach arrived at Marion, McDowell county, on Thursday about 2 p. m., and found the Court House filled with people listening to his Greasy Hon-or and Col (?) W. S. Pearson on the one side and Maj. W. J. Montgomery on the other. Maj. Montgomery spoke only a short time after these two gentlemen entered, and Pearson followed him in a short talk. Greasy had already spoken once, but I made another speech of a half hour in length. When he had concluded, Gen. Leach rose and introduced Mr. Waddell. Greasy had not seen him since he had entered the Cour House, and, speaking to him, asked him if he would not excuse his absence from the Court House for a few moments, that he would soon he back. He was told yes, and as be c eared the door, Mr. Waddell turning to the crowd, said: "You will neversee that man in here again, and they didn't. He had too lively : recollection of the drubbing he ceived at the hands of Mr. Waddell in Pittsboro last week, to meet him in debate again. Gen. Leach and Mr. Waddell both spoke, and when they finished, Pearson had disappeared." In another article the Observer says: "The organ-grinder says that the monkey has escaped and that the last heard of him was at Morganton maka straight shoot for the mountains, (a curious monkey, by the way, that prefers cold to heat.) WELDON, N. C., July 26 .- Great excitement prevailed here this afternoon by a few pistol shots being discharged at each other by Capt. Wm. H. Day and Major Thos. L. Emry, While several gentlemen were discussing the subject of buying the Literary property, Emry gave vent to strong invectives, which were directed at Day and others, when Day resented the offence and attempted to draw a revolver. Emry requested that he be permitted to arm himself, which he did, and returned, when a volley of shots crossed the shed. By their shield, two large posts, the combatants were protected, and no blood was shed. Day is under bond, white Emry has left town temporarily.

"It was a cheering sign to see s many farmers present, men who earn their bread by honest toil, and who have the backbone in the face of party displeasure, to come out and express their sentiments in opposition to Convention.

There were only three farmers in that meeting-Je Gillespie, Bissel and Martin-and they have ever been Radicals, dver in the wool and double struck in the weaving. Let the Democrats of Raleigh attend as much as possible the different Township meetings. Their presence gives encouragement to our friends in the country.

For the Daily News. To our Northern Fellow-Citizens. Mr. Editor :- On Election day las August, I was going up Fayetteville Street and stepped into a store to leave some Democratic tickets, and was approached by a man whom I did not glance was a Northern man. He asked me some question about the tickets I had laid on the show-case, which emboldered me to propose to him that he deposit one in the ballot-box. He remarked that he had always voted the Republican ticket at the North, but that up there the Republican party was composed of the best citizens—the industrious, in-telligent, well-to-do people, but that he had discovered that it was very different down South, that he found the Republican party here made up, chiefly, of government office-holders and ignorant blacks, and that most of the respectable white people were Democrats, and that as he consid himself a respectable man, and hal come down here to live among us, he wanted to associate with white folks, and thinking that to vote with them was one way of showing that he was worthy of their respect, he should that day vote the Democratic-Conservative ticket. That man made no sacrifice of principle. It was to his interest to be a Republican at the North, and it was likewise to his interest to be a Democrat at the South. This instance is cited as an example which is worthy of imitation by our adopted fellow citizens from the North, who come among us to make their homes and bring up their families. It is not contended that a Northern man is obliged to be a Democrat in order to be respected, but it is a fact too evideut to any man of observation, to be questioned, that as a rule the Northern men who have come South since the war, and have identified themselves with the radical party here, have made less progress in their callings, and enjoy less of the respect and nfidence of the best people of the Country, than those who have shown proper self-respect, and respect for their own race, by voting with and for intelligent white Democrats. Then let the adopted citizen of North Carolina, who has been voting with the radicals and against his own interest—unless he be one of the North ern plunderers so eloquently alluded to by a speaker of that party, on a recent occasion in this city-pause and reflect! If he wants to be resif he wants to live under good laws justly and intelligently administered, let him vote for the candidates of the Democratic-Conservative party for

Don't Make War on the Stonach.—
If you are billous, dyspeptic and constipated, don't make war on the stomach by successively swallowing blue pills, strong purgatives and powerful airlingents. Such a procedure damages digestion and weakens the bowels, leaving stomach, liver and intestines, after the immediate effect, in s condition of greater disorder than before.
That complete relief which remedies of the showe description signally all to affo d is obtained by using Hostetter's Stomach Bittiers. And for the best of reasons. Billiousness is the result of inactivity of the liver, dyspepsia of weakness of the digestive organs, and constipation is produced by the above causes operating together.
The Bitters, being a powerful stomachic, overcome indigestion by stimu ating the secretion of gastric juice, relieve billousness by promoting greater activity of the liver, and thus enable the bowels to act with renewed regularity.

TO BUSINE'S MEN.

A good advertisement in a widely circu-lated newspaper is the best of all possible salesmen. It is a salesman who never sleeps and is never weary; who goes after business early and late; who accosts the merchant in his store, the scholar in his study, the lawver in his office, the lady in her home, the traveler in the car or boat; saying to each one the best thing in the best manner. A good advertisement insures a business connection on the most permanent and independent basis, and is in a certain sense, a guarantee to the customer of fair and moderate prices. Experience has shown that the dealer, whose wares have obtained a public celebrity, is not only enabled to sell, but is forced to sell at reasonable rales, and to furnish a good article. A dealer can make no better investment than in the advertising columns of widely circulated newspaper. Such

LET each county vie with the othor for the biggest Democratic majority.

THE question is not whether we shall have a Convention or not; it is, who shall represent us? Remember

REMEMBER that the work of the Convention must be submitted to the people for ratification. They must supervise and endorse or reject the work of their delegates.

PERFECT your county organizations. Let County Executive Committees see that every body has registered. And see that every Demoerat goes to the polls.

THE Charlotte Observer, commenting on Mr. Badger, of Wake, telling the negroes that " he was a colored man himself," says :

"The son of the great North Carolinian, Geo. E. Badger, proclaiming himself a colored man! He boasts of it! Yet, these are the men who say they are opposed to the Civil Rights bill, negro social equality and the like.

We publish this morning an extract of a speech recently delivered by Edward Conigland, Esq., of Halifax, before a large meeting of the tax-payers of that county. His argument upon the binding force of the restrictions imposed upon the Convention will be found of peculiar interest, and we cordially commend it to those of our readers who have any doubts upon this ques-

THE Convention of 1868 declared the marriage of A. G. Thornton, a white man with a negro woman, valid and binding. Do you want a Convention which which will go farther than this and make it compulsory on magistrates and ministers to solemnize all such unnatural and unholy alliances?

Vote for the Radical candidates, or keep away from the polls if you do. You will get what you want

JUDGE BUXTON calls the present Constitution a boon from Heaven .--Surely the Judge forgets himself in his partizan enthusiasm, when he so characterizes the work of men, nearly all of whom were tainted with crime, and many of whom were steeped in it to the lips. Only a difference in national traits saved the Convention of 1868 from being as atrocions as the work of the Jacobines of France. In turpitude they were the equals of their French models. In cold blooded atrocity, their inferiors. But if ever a human institution bore the smear and blotches of diabolic original, it is the Constitution of 1868. Stop Judge, and think.

We repest to our friends, work work! There is a great deal yet to be done, and though we are proud to believe that the danger is past, yet confidence must not beget inactivity. We have a wily and an active enemy to deal with; an enemy that knows all the weak points of human nature and attacks with appropriete weapons. He must be met and foiled.

And while we believe the danger of defeat has passed away, yet we say that in some counties disaster may be feared from a cause originating in our own ranks. Some are disposed to fear and to doubt. All human emotions act by sympathy. Distrust and doubt beget distrust and doubt. Hope and cheerfulness inspire the same in others.

Take courage. Be cheerful. Animate others instead of dispiriting them. One live man is worth a thousand dead ones, and one cheerful spirit will put to flight an army of croakers.

The Convention is called to benfit North Carolinians. It is their duty to send their best men to represent them.

REMEMBER that the election law requires "That when a voter is challenged at the polls upon demand of any citizen of the State it shall be the duty of the Inspectors of the Election to require said voter before being allowed to vote to prove by the oath of some other person known to the judges the fact of his residence for thirty days previous thereto in the county in which he proposes to vote.

Remember also that the election law says: "No elector shall be entitled to register or vote in any other precinct or township than the one in which he is an actual orbona fide resident on the day of election, and no certificates of registration shall be given."

JUDGE WATTS was driven to the wall by Solicitor Montgomery at Marion, and admitted with some show of reluctance that he approved na. It is only one dollar per year, of the Civil Rights bill. When the truth was out of him, and he had said what he could not again unsay, then he gloried in his admission .-He was glad the bill had passed. And why? Because, if his party got control of the Convention, it intended to give it practical force in North Carolina.

Judge Emmons, of Tennessee, has decided the Civil Rights bill unconstitutional only so far as it infringes upon the rights of a State. If a State chooses by its own act to incorporate the principles of the bill into its Constitution, it is all right. She has the power to do

This is what the Radicals aim at. If they get into the Convention, they will be driven forward to their destipy by the negro element which cannot be restrained. John Page has said that there shall be no distinctions in anything between the white and the black. And John Page will be obeyed by the Convention, and he will be aided by R. C. Badger, who already calls himself a colored man in his love for his sable allies and in anticipation of the demand on his services.

Believe what Judge Watts says. Believe what John Page says. Believe what R. C. Badger says, and then suffer the Radicals to carry the Convention with your eyes open.

TAX PAYERS ATTENTION.

A great danger threatens you. It has loomed up in terrible signification within the last eight or ten days. It has assumed reality. We make no sensatorial appeal to your fears when we tell you that you are running the risk of putting it in the power of those who run the fearful career of extravagance in 1868 to give solidity and value to the special tax bonds, which the common sense. common honesty, common consent of the Democratic party declared should never be recognized or paid.

Where does the danger come from? It is in the success of the radical party in their frenzied efforts to carry the Convention. But they say if they find themselves in the majority, they will adjourn. Don't believe them. There is not a word of truth in it. It was only thrown out as a bait to catch doubting Democrats. So sure as they have a majority they will hold it, and then for a high old time, yes, they will have the old times of 1868 over again, with much to add to the catalogue of crime then enacted.

Who expects to be in that Convention? Who are working night and day to get there? Judge Rodman and R. C. Badger; the one, who, from his elevated place on the Supreme Court Bench, has solemnly decided this foul wrong on the people of North Carolina to be just; who declares this unjust and fearful burden to be binding; and R. C. Badger, who is the attorney for these northern cormorants, these bribers and swindlers who imposed this burden upon you with the cool and deliberate purpose of dividing out your substance amongst themselves; dividing the substance of the honest, hard working, overtaxed people among the Shylocks of Wall Street who abetted the crime, and the Swepsons, the Littlefields, the Abbote, who perpetrated it.

Will these men do this? Can they be so base as to sell themselves for fees? Can they be so cruel as to add deliberately to your calamities? Will men who have embarked in a course of crime hesitate to go on to reap the full fruits of it? Let the reports of the fraud commission, let the decisions of the Supreme Court answer for Judge Rodman. Let the readiness to forswear race, to forget lineage, to abandon old associations, answer for R. C.

Badger. People of North Carolina! there is danger. There is danger that you do not comprehend your peril. There is danger that you will suffer yourself to be lulled to sleep or corrupted from your integrity.

Do you not remember well enough the humiliations of the past? Do you sufficiently feel the burdens of the present? Have you not as much taxation on you now as you can breathe under to support the burdens imposed on you by radical rule, State and National? If you think you can bear more; if you esteem it a pleasure to add two or three millions more of taxes to meet the interest on the long repudiated special tax bonds, all that you have to do is to suffer the radical candidates to be e'ected; they will give you enough of it: and be sure, they will

... speech. In closing his remarks, at the tax payers meeting, in Halifax county on the 5th inst., Mr. Conigland said : It is not my purpose to discuss the various points, that occur to me in detail, but I will suggest some that occur to me of many

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION without which the East can have no In these we do not wish to curtail the rights of any class of men, we simply desire to secure our own. First : Preserve the equation be tween the tax on $300,000 value of property and the tax on the poll, but when the tax on property is increased for any purpose, the tax on the poll must be increased in the like

Second : Allow no man to vote at any election who has not paid his poil tax accrued since the last preceding election either in money, or y work on the public roads.

Third: Limit the number of Magistrates for each county; elect the Magistrates for life by the Legislature from men of intelligence and good character, and require a majority of the whole body to concur in levying the county taxes.

I would not have a man indicted for failing to list his taxes, which enures only to the benefit of the officers of the court; but I would make all able bodied men pay their poli taxes in money or in work. I ask the colored men who are present, if their good friend Solicitor Harris, in the several bundred indietments which he had against them here for failing to list, remitted any of his costs. Several colored men here answered, no, he made us pay every cent." I ask them again who kept many of them from going to jail for inabil to pay these costs-was it nor their white friends? (Answer "That is true.") It is true, and it is your white friends you go to in all your difficulties. The men of your own party could not help you if they would and I doubt whether they would if they could. And yet you would vote for the meanest among them, rathe than the best among us. But, fellow tax-payers, what can we do? We are manacled-bound hand and feet-of ourselves we can do nothing. Is this state of things to be continued? Are the intelligent white men of Eastern North Carolina to be governed-are taxes to be levied upon their property and labor, and to be disbursed by a body of illiterate negroes, not one in one thousand of whom owns an acre of land? Can any man, with the spirit of a white man in his bosom rest quietly under such a state of things? our weapons are those of peace. We can only appeal to our white brethren throughout the State, to come to our aid, now when they have the opportunity, and if they turn a deaf ear to our entreaties, we will bow our heads in sorrow and endeavor to submit patiently to the afflictions with which God may choose to vist us.

I have trespassed so long upon your patience, that I cannot treat at the length the importance of the sub-

and the restrictions therein contain. It is well known to my friends, that I have regarded, as I do now regard, many of the restrictions imposed by the act, not only as unnecessary, but as inconsistent with the best interests of the State dictated by a timid and short sighted policy, and especially unjust to eastern North Carolina. But I have not hesitated to declare as a lawyer, and I do now declare, my opinion to be, that they are of binding force. I am very sure that no Convention composed of a majority of Conservatives, would attempt to disregard them, but should do so, their work would be mull and void even were it sanctioned by the people, and would be so held by the Supreme Court.

The precedent of 1865, when Judge laston deeclared, and the Conven tion so decided, that body to be bound by the restrictions contained in the call, is said, by our opponents. o be of no value, because the said restrictions were imposed by a vote of the Legislature, which has no power to bind the people.

A very few words will show the tter falacy of this reasoning. Previous to 1835, the Constitution contained no provision for its own amendment. The Legislature had no power to call a Convention, because such power the people had re-served to themselves, and had not delegated it to that body. It follows then that, previous to 1835, the people could only call a Convention either restricted, or unrestricted.

But by the Constitution of 1835, and by the present Constitution, the people parted with the power to call Convention and delegated such power to two-thirds of the Legislaive body. The people then have no power to call a Convention, except through two thirds of the Legislature to whom they have delegated it. And all power which rested in the people in this particular before 1835, now rests in the Legislative body who have thus the right to call a Convenion, either open or limited in all respects as the people had before that

It seems to me that this position is impregnable. The sanction of the eople can give no force or validity to any amendment of the Constitu-tion, except in the prescribed mode. To attempt to do so would be simply revelution." Such is the doctrines of the Supreme Court of the United States in the "Dorr case" and the same doc-trine is emphatically sustained and approved by Judge Ruffin, "clarum et venerabile nomen," in his letter to a member of the Convention of It is also sustained by the authority of Mr. Moore, to whom I have already referred.

Those who now hold a different doetrine and who insist that the re- bia, Me.

strictions are of no binding force, or through ignorance, are endeavor ing to deter the timid and mislead the unwary, in the hope of defeating all amendments to the Constitution. You will know now what im-portance to attach to the senseless cry that the rights of married women are in danger, and that the homestead also may no longer be provided

Whereas both of those measure are for the benefit of property holders, who alone are interested therein and besides we are indebted for both to the white men of North Carolina, and not to the negroes and their associates.

As long ago as 1848, Colonel Andrew Joiner, the then distinguished Senator from this county, made the first move in behalf of the rights of married women.

He introduced and carried through the Legislature an act securing to married women a separate estate in their land (Rev. Code chap. 25 sec. 1.) The act has remained on the statute book ever since, and to this day a married woman has no greater estate in land than that Act secures to her, and did secure to her nearly thirty years before our bastard Constitution was ever thought of.

In 1850 the Act was passed allow-ing a married woman to insure the life of her husband for her own use. In 1865 at Louisburg, in Franklin county, if I may be allowed to refer to myself, when personal property was of great value, I made a speech invitation, which was then publis; ed, and advocated from beginning to end the separate rights of married women to their personal as well as real estate. I was one of the first men in North Carolina to take up the subect, and I well recollect how the beautiful girls of that section applauded me, nor were the sentiments expressed less appreciated by the more staid matrons. Nor does the claim of our opponents to the HOMESTEAD rest on any better grounds. Judge Reid in Garret vs. Cheshire, decided at June term, 1873, 69 N. C. Rep. 396 ealls attention to the act of 1866 and 1867, ch. 61 p. 81, where a homestead of 100 acres, including a single dwelling and out houses is allowed, and that, too, without regard to value, and the same is continued after the death of the father until the youngest child attains twenty one years of age. The same act is also most liberal in the exemptions of personal property, and this act was passed by Conservatives, on the 27th day of February 1867, a full year before a negro could poll a vote or the Radieal party had a foot-hold in the State. For that party then to claim the paternity of those measures, is a false pretence which no man of respectability will set up.

It may be asked why they were not made a 'Constitutional provision" before 1868. For the simple reason that such a provision was not necessary, as the whole subject was within the province of the Legislature, and secondly, because we had never before been fully impressed with the need of it. Although the slaves had been emancipated, vet in 1866 cotton and all other products were selling at prices never before attained, and every man thought he had a fortune within his grasp. But when in 1867 suits for debt crowded the dockets, when crops failed and products fell to ante-war prices, and men saw their high hopes vanish, and themselves reduced to beggary. then it was determined to transfer these beneficent provisions from the statute book to the Constitution. They belong to no party-they simpew out of the oress of events and the exigencies of the times. I have detained you longer than I intended, and still must leave many points untouched. I congratulate you again on this large and respecta ble meeting. If we but sustain each other in this struggle; if we will but appeal, and make known ourgrievnces to our fellow-citizens throughout the State, we will not fail to secure relief, and we may yet live to see North Carolina "redeemed, regenerated and disinthrafted."

The other day, when the stamp clerk at the Vicksburg postoffice refused to "lick ou" a three center of an old lady who wanted to post a letter, she stood back, gave him a glance of scorn, and indignantly ex-claimed: "Well, if the folks ain't getting powerful peart and sassy these days! I believe if Gabriel should blow his trumpet to-morrow that half the young folks would want to get on starched shirts a fore they went to heaven."

A correspondent of the Richmond quirer, writing from the Greenorier White Sulpher Springs. a., Says there were some 500 guests there last week. Says he: "We have not met with better fare in any quarter of the world or more diligent attendance than the "White" now fur-With excellent cooks, a nishes. masterly caterer, attentive waiters and "the very best the markets afford," what more can be asked?

The Herald, touching O'Conor's ssault upon the New York Court of Appeals, wants to have the leading lawyers of the country interviewed on this question : "What is the value of justice in a State where a public officer can steal five millions from the treasury, pay half a million to lawyers, leeches and blackmailers, and through their aid escape any but nominal punishment and at the same time retain the money?"

It is a melancholy sign of the universality with which Americans seem to be forsaking farm work that even in a period when the duliness of manufacturers and trade leaves thousands unemployed, the farmers find it hard to get sufficient help The complaint is general in all parts of the country that sufficient help eannot be obtained to handle the crops with.

A man in Medina, Orleans county while riding in procession behind his wife's remains the other day, overwhelmed with grief, mustered sufficient strength to stop the procession and jump out of the carriage to pick up a knife which he detected in the road. It had a pearl handle and five blades, and will while away many a sad hour for him.

The second annual session of this school will begin WEDNESDAY, September, 1st, 1875. The Principals have procured for the school the commodious and attractive residence on Newbern Avenue, well-known in Raleigh as the "Cotton Place" more recently owned and handsomely refitted by Col R Kingsland.

Besides continuing their Day School they propose taking a limited number of boys of good character and conduct to board in their own family.

The training of the school, as heretofore, will be full, thorough and accurate, preparing its pupils for college or for business life. Competent assistants will be provided in all departments, as may be required. The Principals trust that it is scarcely necessary for them to say that whilst the school will continue to be conducted on Christian principles, it will be estirely without denominational aim or blus.

METHODS OF CHANGE.

Of the two methods prescribed for changing the Constitution, that by legislative enactment is expensive, uncerning and dangerous; the several amendance recently submitted to and ratified by the people encountered the greatest difficulties in their passage, and even after the will of the people was declared in their favor by over 40,000 majotite, serious apprahencions were entertained as to whether they were prepared and their growth of the people was declared in their favor by over 40,000 majotite, serious apprahencions were entertained as to whether they were prepared and cannot bring that attention to each provision presented for a sideration, without meeting such criticams as may imperit their labors.

The Convention method is speedy and economical, the body is composed only of the same number of members as comprise the House of Representatives, and their minds are directed alone to constitutional reforms and their work may be completed and ratified, if necessary, in six wooths. As to expenses that may be incurred, it is bedeved they will be more than defrayed in a short time by the reforms that will be inaugurated.

ADDRESS OF THE EXECUTIVE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COM-MITTEE TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC CON-SERVATIVE CENT'L EX. COM, RALEIGH, June 1st. '75.

To the People of North Carolina: The General Assembly at its re-cent session called a Convention of the people to meet at Raleigh on the 6th day of September next, for the purpose of suggesting such alterations in our organic law as may be deemed wise and expedient. NECESSITY FOR CHANGE.

The necessity for changing many of the provisions of the existing Constitution is generally admitted, and is too apparent to require extended argument. It is true that some of our prominent men at one time opposed he call for a convention ; but their ection was based on prudential consideration, and not on an indisposition to have the Constitution thoroughly revised. They feared that our purpose in seeking to reform our Fundamental Law, might be misconstrued by the violent and illinformed men then controlling Congress, and the prosperity of our peo-ple checked, and the peace of the State jeopardized by some barsh and unconstitutional action on the part of the United States authorities. That fear no longer exists. We now have every assurance that the Constitution of the United States will be observed by the officers of the Government, and feel a satisfaction in announcing to you that the time has at last arrived when the officials at Washington City concede that the people of North Carolina have the same right to manage their local concerns which the citizens of other States enjoy. We can proceed without apprehension to perfect our Constitution and remodel it in the interests of our people.

THE CONSTITUTION, THE CREATURE OF MIL-This Constitution, the creature of Military dictation, was born in the throes of a Military reconstruction. Its authors were mainly Sciolists and adventurers who had lived among us without preferment, or possessed of qualifications entitling them to it; others were our recent riaves, who had known no law save the will of their masters, and others still were carpet baggers, both black and white-atien in feeling and R dicalin Education—who sought positions here that were denied them where known—to despail and humiliate us. And TTARY LAW. own-to despail and humiliate us. And en their work was submitted to the peo-And were deprived of the right of voting pontit, and over eighty thousand igno-ant negroes were given the ballot to secure is adoption. It is no exaggeration to say rant negroes were given the ballot to scalle its adoption. It is no exaggeration to say that not one person in ten who voted for it could read the ins rument, and not one in finy-had read it or was even moderate y familiar with its provisions, and many gave it their support believing it would be merely temporary, and to escap: further agitation and revolution. It is natural therefore that a Constitution thus formed and adopte is hould be found ansulted to our condition, and that we should embrace the earliest opportunity consistent with reason and purferner to secre such changes as time and experience have shown to be necessary. Our organic law should be expressed in language clear, simple and perspicuous, so that nothing may be left to inference or construction; our rights, so precise y defined as to be comprehended by all men of ordinary intelligence; and each department of the government should be so restricted, that while left aree to discounts.

restricted, that while left tree to d scharge its apprepriate duties it cannot by unwarranted encroachments embarrass the proper action of others.

THE CONSTITUTION UNSUITED TO OUR CON-That the Constitution contains some good provisions no one denies; it would be singular if it d d not, tuttis shominable characteristics were so manifest that not a single Conservative member of the Convention that passed it could be induced to affix his signature to it, as a fit instrument to be submitted to the people. Indeed its provi-sions are so loosely worded and so badly arranged as to constitute but a medley of incon-istences that defices the successful construction of the courts; in fact, the incon-istencies that defies the successful construction of the courts; in fact, to reconcue the difficult es arising from its practical workings, the court has in some instances been driven to supply omissions, and in others to introduce a new principle, hatherto unknown in the judicial history of our sate, distinguished as "judicial legislation," an innovation anti-republican in character and invasive of the rights and duties of also prate department. Its provious are so obscume that within the brief space of its existence many more decisions. s are so obscure that within hie brief of its ex-scence many more decisions a diutional questions have been de-ed than in the entire previous histo-he Scate—and, of late we have wit-manded than in the entire previous history of the State—and of late we have witnessed the extraordinary spectacle of two sets of judges in both the second and eighth Judicial Districts, contending for the same pastion, one of which el-1 ning to hold by an appointment from the Governor for a period of ten years, an office that the Constitution seems to say is to be fitted by the people at the polis, and whose term is expressed to be only eight years.

In many counties, there is a practical denial of justice the cours are inadequate to the public demands, and thus they are driven to resort to spicial terms, which are expensive and unsatisfactory, and persons accused of criminal offenses are often confined for months without trial. We need a specifier justice and a less expensive fundaday system. We should attoits every use, as office, which is now filed by a mere consumer; for only by a rigid and prudent comony in our public as well as private affairs, can we hope to re tore the State to prosperity. It is believed that the laws will be more impartially administered by a return to the old practice of a rotation of the Judges.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CRIMINAL LAW NEC-It is also hoped that a greater incentive to honesty and a purification of the ballot box might result from depriving those who are convicted of infamous crimes of the The a atter of the Penitentiary which al-reacy contains more than six hundred able podied men, also demands careful and practical attention, to remove in some measure that burden from our shoulders. Most of our private legislation should be excluded from the General Assembly. However, our limited space does not pertit us to catalogue the numerous decels and imperfections of the present constitu on to enumerate the remedies to be offe ed.

There should be some general ordinance adopted in relation to private enactments, thereby reducing the expenses of the Leging ture, and in order to prevent hasty and terfonsiderate legislation that no new math a be brought forward within — days of all addurning.

CAREFUL SELECTION OF DELEGATES. CAREFCL SELECTION OF DELEGATES.

As to the specific changes that ought to be made, these are to be considered by the citizens of the various counties, who should be careful to select as delegates those who will properly reflect their wishes Men of callarged and practical statesmanship, spoticas integrity, representatives of all classes of society, and whose positions among them will entitle them their labors to confidence and supportant in their hands they certainly caunore safely confide their rights than in the Convention of 188.

METHODS OF CHANGE.

METHODS OF CHANGE,

The restrictions imposed by the Legislature, fully and amply secure the Homestead, Mechanics Lieu, Rights of married women, and Personal Liberty, and should quiet the tears of the most timid, for they are recognized as of binding efficacy and are chiefly enjoyed by the friends of Constitutional Reform. Indeed they were incorporated in the bill mainly to remove partizan chamor, and anticipate scrupulous agitation. They are not the property of a nere party, but had their origin in the necessities of civilized society and were found among the statutes of various States re-

OUALIFICATIONS OF DELFGATES, It is useless, however, to seek to quiet the mere envillers the keen optics of some persons defy ail law. The mere feet that the boud of the best men in the State is piedged to, their preservation, should satisfy very reasonable vote. This Convention is a died in pursuance of law, and epch delegate before "he shall be permitted to sit, to be entitled to a seat in said Convention of act as a delegat, thereto," shall swear to observe these "cestricions" (see acts 1874-5.) Should a part comply and part refuse to take this oath, only those who obey the law are "members of the body, nor are we without precedents; similar oath was required of the members of the "restricted Convention" of 1855, the same question was relied, and after debate all the members con the oath and observed the restrictions, and that in a time of high part "exc tement. In that discuss on the distinguished, Judge Gestion used the following language." The State Legislature had indeed no authority to impose an oath upon the members of the Convention, but the people had ratified the act of the Legislature by shoosing delegates under it. If we transcend the limits or reduce obdedictee to the conditions therein prescribed we are not the Convention called by the people, but a self constituted body; These views we collected in by Macon, Edwards, Morehead, and others. We will dismiss the saif of, however, by cailing attention to this mostler, he demonstrated that Coveations are bound to obey the restrictions imposed by the Legislature in the Act calling the Convention.

Ald From Republicans.

by the Legislature in the Actesiting the Convention.

ALD FROM REPUBLICANS.

In our last election it was gratifying to see Republicans who had hithert a submitted to the control of unscrupulous leaders under a mistaken belief that they wore promoting tine general welfare, seeing their corraptness as demonstrated by the "Credit Mobilier revelations," "Samborn contracts" and other trands and defalcations, and their vindictive and releatless policy, whereby they sought to degrade the superior race by this iniquitous "tivil Rights Bill," overcome their party prejudice and give us their cordial support. To them we extend an invitation to remain and continue the work so auspiciously begun. To the sed who oppose us under the activition of their leaders, who assured from this bill would never pass Congress and if it did would be vetoed by the Presidont, though it now has his signature; and who have witnessed the earne-stness with which the dangerous "Force Bill" was urged upon Congress, we say no longer remain where there is neither sofety nor honor to a North Carolinian. The bable for civil liberty is not yet over, "Civil Rights" is still a part of the secret carpet bag programme for this State; though riven from the balls of Congress, it will be renewed in the Southern States. We therefore unvite their cooperation. The Convention owes its final success to the support of some of their ablest representatives were sooned and defeated by their tempes and they are doubtless aware that the wise provisions introduced into the Convention of 1868, by their ablest native representatives were scouted and defeated by their same element that has trought rain upon their party and confusion to our State.

NECESITY OF ORGANIZATION.

The friends of Convention should at once perfect their organization and bring out their has them in every county in the State. The leaders of the Republican party know that by their receies violations of the constitution and efforts to central zeal power in the hands of the Federal Government, they have justly forfeited the confidence and support of the people; they therefore trust not to their own strength but to our apathy, and will endeavor to secure our defeat by divisions and false leaders. We therefore respectfully invite their attention to the following resolution adopted and successfully followed in our adopted and successfully followed in our last campaign: Resolved. That we earnestly recommend Resolved. That we earnestly recommend to the members of the Democratic Conservative party to discourage independent candidates and all other disc guizers, that all support be promptly with drawn from every aspirant for office who shall constraints and the control of the contr oppose the regular nominees of our Con-ventions. Let your primary county Con-ventions be duly advertised and see that ventions be duly advertised and see that the people have a full opportunity of attending and expressing their wishes. The contest is imperiant not only in its immediate effects but in subsequent results. The Republican party, under the leadership of carnet-aggers still remaining atmong us, will advocate the election of delegates, who will spree to met and as journ without holding a Convention, and this in wichatle n of the wishes of the people, expressed through at wo-thirds majority of the chosen Representatives, and after a considerable part of the expenses for milage and per Representatives, and after a considerable part of the expenses for milage and per diem is incurred. We believe, however, the promise is but a delusion and snare, for shoul it they ascerts in they have a majority in the body, it will be an easy matter for them to ev-de their promise by the refusal of a few to concur; as they do not acknowledge the "restrictions" as binding, they will resort to the most revolutionary measures to sustain their desperate fertunes, and in the end will fail to submit their work to the people for ratification or rejection.

Let us, the refere, present a united front, and with a general advance along our lines. Let us, the refere, present a united refer and with a general advance along our line. Radicalism will not only be routed but overwhelmed, and a victory for Civil Lib-erty assured for 1876. WM. R. C.X. Chairman.

NOON DISPATCHES. FROM EUROPE,

A Terrible Drouth and Famine in the Province of Minho—Plimsall's Shipping Bill.

LONDON, July 26.—The daily News special from Lisbon reports drought in several districts of the province of Minho has destroyed the crops and pastures. Famine is threatened and riots against grain exporters are im-iment. The cattle are dying of hunger. Local authorities report it to be impossible to collect taxes in many places. An attempt to do so they fear would cause insurrection. Accounts from Algarve show a similar state of affairs in that province. The Government is sending relief to the afflicted sections. The Times understands Mr. Plimsall has procured a revival of his shipping bill which he previously abandoned in favor of the governments measure. That it will now be placed on order of the book for Thursday. Plimsall will then apologize to the house and consent to the passage of the bill as a provisional measure for one year only.

The Railroad War in the West Benefitting the Traveling Public. St. Louis, July 25.—Cutting down of passengers fare by the St. Louis and Southeast R. R. between here and Nashville, Tenn., for a few weeks, in opposition to the Iron Mountain Road and its Southern connections, have been extended, and the former road announces it will hereafter carry passengers from Nashville to Louisville for one-third fare and freight at correspondingly low rates. The route will be by the St. Louis Southeastern to Nortonville, thence by Louisville and Padneah to Louisville. The opposition was brought about by the Louisville and Nashville Road refusing St. Louis and Southeastern tickets to Montgomery, Ala., and other points

A Mysterious Suicide at Sea. CHARLESTON, July 25.—A mysterious suicide occurred during the trip to this point of the steamer South Carolina, which left New York on Wednesday. He had carefully des-troyed everything in his baggage by which his body could be identified. He left a letter to the Capt. indicating that he took passage with the entention of committing suicide.

The Cable Difficulties-The Cotton operatives at Oldham Striking. LONDON July 26.—The manager of the direct United States cable, in a communication to the Times, referring to its remarks in its financial article of Thursday last in regard to the cable, says no stockholder has been denied information. He also says a small portion of the cable bas been injured, probably by ice contractors are now engaged putting out and replacing the injured part. 30 cotton mills closed at Oldham
